

There is a Deputy Adjutant-General to command the Militia in each of the nine districts, assisted by Brigade Majors.

4. Minister of Militia and Defence—Hon. Sir George E. Cartier.
 Deputy of Minister of Militia and Defence—Major George Futvoye.
 Accountant—Captain R. Berry.
 Superintendent of Stores—Lieut.-Col. Thomas Wily.

---

STAFF AT HEADQUARTERS.

- Colonel P. Robertson Ross—Adjutant-General.
 Lieutenant-Colonel Walker Powell—Deputy Adjutant-General.

---

DISTRICT STAFF.

Lieutenant-Colonel		Deputy Adjutant-General	Military District No.
Lieutenant-Colonel J. B. Taylor				1
"	W. S. Durie,	do.	do.	2
"	S. P. Jarvis,	do.	do.	3
"	F. J. Atcherley,	do.	do.	3
"	W. O. Smith,	do.	do.	5
"	A. C. de L. Harwood.	do.	do.	6
"	L. A. Casault,	do.	do.	7
"	G. J. Maunsell,	do.	do.	8
"	R. B. Sinclair,	do.	do.	9

5. The Active Militia numbers, according to latest returns, 43,077, viz :

Cavalry.....	1500
Field Batteries.....	750
Garrison Artillery.....	3500
Naval Brigade.....	233
Rifles and Infantry.....	37094
Total.....	43077

Being 3,077 men in excess of the quota of 40,000 men authorized for annual training.

The Reserve Militia numbers, as per enrolment of 1869, 656,500, who are by law liable to military service when required.