

ments, some of its rarest works of art, its purest literature, its freest commerce, and its highest civilization. Great Britain has been a kind and indulgent parent to the Dominion of Canada, and whatever the future may develop, our present duty is not to sever, but to maintain the bonds which unite us. In this way only will our country escape the fate of Texas and of Mexico, and realize the bright hopes, entertained by every true Canadian, of ultimately becoming the Greater Britain of America.

"Breather there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said:
This is my own—my native land."
