

The following are the Dominion Payments for the four months from July to October, inclusive:—

July .....	$2,367,695	October .....	$1,449,957
August .....	1,475,506
September .....	1,038,584	Total for four months .....	$6,371,542

It thus appears, from addition of these various items in the Canada Gazette, that the Receipts were in excess of the Payments for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1870, by $2,477,004, and for the four succeeding months by $900,218. In all, for the 16 months, the excess of revenue over expenditure was $3,467,822. These figures may not accurately represent the true state of the accounts. They are given, as we understand, at the end of the month, sometimes before all the charges are made. There is, we believe, a very considerable excess of Revenue over Expenditure, but that it will not be so large as would appear from the figures in the Gazette, all the charges not being entered. The excess is probably under two millions.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS LAID BEFORE PARLIAMENT.

The Public Accounts of the Dominion for the fiscal year ended June 30th, 1869, were laid before the Session of Parliament of 1870.

We subjoin the statements of Receipts and Payments of the Dominion, from all sources, for the year ended June 30th, 1869:—
