Gzowski, and others, with same restrictions, with regard to real estate as in Cap. 90. Power is given to the committee to apprentice the boys, having the protection of the corporation, to any healthy trade or business, and to exercise over them the power of parents or guardians. The objects of the corporation are,—to establish a house or lodging for vagrant boys frequenting the streets of Toronto, where provision should be made—1. To secure them food, lodging and washing at a moderate charge, and under such regulations as should tend to their reformation. 2. To encourage in them provident habits, by taking care of their surplus earnings, and advising and aiding them in their expenditures for clothing and other necessary requirements. 3. To provide instruction and other innocent occupation for their leisure hours. 4. To provide them with permanent situations.

Cap. 98—Incorporates as the ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETY OF LONDON, H. Taylor, W. H. Esbary, G. Phillips, and others. May hold real estate to the annual value of $5,000.

Cap. 99—Confirms the deed for the distribution and settlement of the Estate of the late Hon. G. J. GOODHUE, of LONDON, made in the 26th Sept., 1870.

Cap. 100—Empowers the trustees under the will of the late J. B. SPRAGGE, to sell the lands belonging to his estate, situated in Blenheim (Oxford) and invest the money in Govt. stock or securities of Canada, or on the security of freehold real estate, with the consent in writing of Eliza Frances Lett.

Cap. 101—Enables ROBERT FLANIGAN to sell or mortgage any part of the homestead or the real estate devised by the Will and Codicil of his late father JOHN FLANIGAN, of CHARLOTTENBURGH, Glengary, and to apply the proceeds to pay the debts of the testator and the obligations incurred by said Robert Flanigan for the purposes of the testator's estate, and the execution of the trusts of the Will and Codicil.

Cap. 102—Enables SULLIVAN CAVERNO to convey 5½ acres of land in Merrittville (Welland) with buildings, &c., upon it, held by him as one of the trustees of the marriage settlement in favour of Catherine Caverno, his daughter, with N. T. Fitch, of St. Catharines. Court of Chancery may appoint a receiver for the estate.
