

10. At Ravenscroft, Monmouthshire, Eng., Viscount Amberley, son of Earl Russell, in his 84th year.

11. At London, Eng. the Marchioness of Clanricarde, "Canning's only daughter," in her 73rd year.

12. At Boston, Mass., Dr. Samuel G. Howe, the well-known philanthropist, in his 75th year.

13. At Montreal, Que., Hon. Joseph U. Beaudry, one of the Judges of the Superior Court, in his 58th year.

14. Sir S. J. Gibbons, former Lord Mayor of London.

15. Edward Shaw, Esq., M. P. for Burnley, Lancaster.

16. Wm. Bomaine Callender, Esq., M. P. for Manchester, in his 51st year.

17. At Edinburgh, Scotland, Sir George Harvey, late President of the Royal Scottish Academy, in his 70th year.

18. At Paris, France, Fred. Lemaitre, a celebrated actor, in his 73th year. Lost in the snow, in North-west Territory, Rev. Wm. McDougall, the indefatigable and highly esteemed Indian Missionary.

19. Francis Deak, the celebrated Hungarian statesman and patriot, in his 74th year.

20. At Montreal, Que., D. Torrance, Esq., President of the Bank of Montreal, and one of the leading merchants of the city.

21. At Markham, Ont., Rev. Henry Barkley, Mennonite Minister, aged 70.

22. At Birkenhead, Eng., Sir Wm. Jackson, one of the great English railway contractors, in his 71st year.

FEBRUARY.

1. At London, Eng., John Forster, the friend and biographer of Dickens, a well-known littérateur, in his 66th year.

2. Rev. Jabez Burns, D. D., a celebrated Baptist Divine, in his 71st year.

3. Lieutenant General Viscount Melville, G. C. B., grandson of the great Lord Melville, in his 76th year.

4. At Montreal, Q., Hon. Charles S. Rodier, Lex. Councillor and ex-Mayor of Montreal.

5. Mr. Isaac Bonner, Secretary of Montreal Transportation Co.

6. Found dead, in the yard of the Executive Mansion at Annapolis, U. S., Hon. Beverdy Johnson, a distinguished American jurist and statesman.

7. At London, Eng., Sir Samuel Taylor Coleridge, P. C., nephew of the poet Coleridge, in his 57th year.

8. Admiral Sir Baldwin W. Walker, K. C. B., in his 74th year.

9. At Eton, Mr. Edmund Bristow, the landscape painter, in his 91st year.

10. Baron Séguin, the eminent French scientist.

11. W. Dickinson, Esq., Deputy Inspector General, Finance Department of Canada.

12. Drowned, at Montreal, Mr. W. Leitch, a well-known and respected merchant.

13. At Hamilton, Ont., Rev. Wm. Hector Rennelson, M. A., in his 81st year.

14. At Alberton, P. E. I., Hon. Herbert Bell, President of the Legislative Council, in his 68th year.

15. Edward Fellow, Viscount Exmouth, in his 65th year.

16. At Hartford, Conn., Rev. Horace Bushnell, D. D., in his 74th year.

17. At Boston, Mass., Charlotte Cushman, the celebrated actress.

18. At Montreal, Que., J. F. Sincennes, Esq., in his 58th year.

19. At Kingston, Ont., Mr. James Linton, for many years an alderman of that city.

20. At Toronto, Ont., Rev. John Jennings, D.D., in his 62nd year.

21. Pierre M. Irving, nephew and biographer of Washington Irving, in his 74th year.

MARCH.

1. At London, Eng., Lady Augusta Stanley, wife of Dean Stanley.

2. At Montreal, Que., Mr. Samuel Hutchinson, one of the best reporters in Canada, and editor of the Galt Reformer, aged 31.

3. At Charlottetown, P. E. I., Mrs. Eleanor Robinson, the grand daughter of Clarendon, in her 100th year.

4. At Grand River, Onondaga, Mrs. Osborne, grand daughter of Brant, and great grand daughter of Sir Wm. Johnson.

5. At Adelaide, Australia, Sir Richard D. Hanson, Chief Justice of South Australia.

6. At Collingwood, Ont., Mr. Robert McDonald, aged 111 years.

7. At Pictou, N. S., John Curry, aged 102.

8. At London, Eng., Marie de Playigny, Countess D'Agout, a well-known writer, in her 72nd year.

9. At Oberlin, Ohio, the "Eliza" of Uncle Tom's Cabin.

10. At Assynt, Scotland, the widow of Hugh Miller, in her 65th year.

11. At Sarnia, Ont., in his 63rd year, Thomas Wm. Johnston, Esq., M. D., Registrar of the County of Lambton.

12. At Alexandria, Egypt, Mr. Thos. Steele Livingstone, son of Dr. Livingstone.

13. At Baltimore, U. S., Sister Harriet, Superior of the Protestant Episcopal Order of All Saints in the United States.

14. Very suddenly, at his mountain residence, near Kingston, Mr. Barnes, Attorney General of Jamaica.

15. At Ottawa, Ont., G. B. L. Fallows, Esq., Q. C., Mayor of the city.

16. At Waltham Stowe, near London, Eng., Seymour Clarke, Esq., Vice-President of the Great Western Railway of Canada.

17. At Roarke Pindee, India, Rt. Rev. Dr. Milman, Bishop of Calcutta.

18. At Carnstadt, Germany, Ferdinand Freiligrath, German poet, in his 66th year.

19. Col. Chas. C. Chesney, one of the ablest military men in the British service.

20. At Hamilton, Ont., very suddenly, Dr. Macintosh, one of the most popular city physicians.

21. Very Rev. Dean of Bangor, in his 84th year.

22. Dr. H. Letheby, the well-known Medical officer for the city of London, in his 60th year.

23. At Liverpool, Eng., Captain John Oliver, aged 102, who fought under Nelson at Trafalgar, and was 70 years at sea.

24. At Belleville, Ont., Dr. Rufus Holden, an old and respected citizen.

25. At Oshawa, Ont., Mr. A. S. Whiting, President of the Cedar Dale Works, one of the oldest residents of Oshawa, in his 69th year.

APRIL.

1. At Philadelphia, Miss Elizabeth Taylor Greenfield, better known as the Black Swan, in her 65th year.