

and who has resided within the electoral district for not less than twelve months preceding the election being entitled to vote.

Total proportion of votes to voters.

65. It is a curious fact that whether the Territories are included or excluded, the proportion of votes polled to the number of voters remains precisely the same, viz., 70.27.

Naturalization.

66. Any person, an alien, who has resided for three years in this country can, after taking the oath of residence and allegiance before a judge, commissioner or magistrate, and having the same registered, obtain a certificate of naturalization, and become entitled to the privileges of a British subject. An alien woman, when married to a British subject, becomes thereby a naturalized British subject.
