

kept of the number of messages or communications, but the average number is about 68,000 daily. The American Bell Telephone Company had in 1887, 353,518 instruments in use, and 128,231 miles of wire. The laying of a telephone cable is projected between London and Paris, and this mode of communication is coming more into use in almost all countries every day.

---