829. By the British North America Act it is provided that the Governor-General shall appoint the judges of the superior, district and county courts, except those of the courts of probate in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and that their salaries, allowances and pensions shall be fixed and provided by the Dominion Parliament. It is also provided that the judges of the courts of Quebec shall be selected from the bar of that province, and there is a similar provision for the selection of the judges in Ontario, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, until the laws relative to property and civil rights and the procedure of the courts in those provinces are made uniform.

830. The highest court in the country is known as the Supreme Court, and was constituted in 1875. It is presided over by a chief justice and five puisne judges, all of whom must reside within, or within five miles of, the city of Ottawa, where the court holds its sittings three times a year, viz., in February, May and October. This court has an appellate, civil and criminal jurisdiction in and throughout Canada. An appeal lies from this court to the Judicial Committee of the Imperial Privy Council.
