^{993.} It may be remarked that many articles of import, which are really the produce of South America and the West Indies, are credited to the United States, from which country they are bought at second-hand, as coffee, sugar, hides, &c.

^{994.} The following table gives the value of goods entered for consumption at three periods since Confederation, viz.: in 1873, 1883 and 1893, and shows also the countries from which the goods were imported, the value of
