816. It may be remarked that many articles of import, which are really the produce of South America and the West Indies, are credited to the United States, from which country they are bought at second-hand, as coffee, sugar, hides, &c.

817. The following table gives the value of goods entered for consumption at three periods since Confederation, viz. : in 1874, 1884 and 1894, and
