revenue of $60,000 per annum, and in addition each participating country will contribute a share of the expenses of maintenance. Suitable buildings for the work of the Institute have been erected in Rome. At the preliminary meetings held in Rome during 1908, Canada was represented by Dr. J. G. Rutherford, Veterinary Director General and Live Stock Commissioner, and Mr. Keville Doherty, private secretary to the Minister of Agriculture; and at the general assembly of national representatives, held in Rome from November 27 to December 1, Canada was,
