VITAL STATISTICS.

The vital statistics here published show only births, marriages, deaths, excess of births over deaths, and crude birth, marriage and death rates for the eight provinces collecting such statistics from 1911 to the latest available year, also for the cities in these provinces.

Several important considerations should be borne in mind by those who use these tables, or the provincial reports from which these tables are compiled, for comparative purposes.

In the first place the birth, marriage and death rates given are based upon estimated and not upon actually enumerated populations. When the results of the Census of 1921 are published, the
