A table showing the percentage of the population of from 5 to 19 years of age who attended school in 1921, classified by age-periods and by sex, will be found on p. 139 of the 1924 Year Book, while the school attendance of children from 7 to 14 years of age is shown for cities of 10,000 and over in a table on page 138 of the same volume.

13.—Mother Tongue and Language Spoken.1

Every person of 10 years of age and over in Canada was required at the census of 1921 to answer the three questions:—(a) Can you speak English, (b) Can you speak French, (c) Language other than English and French spoken as mother tongue. "Mother tongue" was defined as the "language of customary speech employed by the person." The ascertained mother tongues of the people of Canada, exclusive of aborigines, as thus defined, are presented by provinces in Table 47, while more detailed statistics of the total English-speaking and French-speaking populations are furnished in Tables 48 to 50.

In the total population of 6,595,040 in the nine provinces, 4,099,246 or 62·12 p.c. gave English as their mother tongue and 1,757,193 or 26·64 p.c. French, 196,619 or 2·98 p.c. German, while 103,977 or 1·58 p.c. spoke one or other of the four Scandinavian languages (Swedish, Norwegian, Danish and Icelandic) as the mother tongue. Languages of the Slavic group were spoken as the mother tongue by 187,347 or 2·84 p.c. and Yiddish by 85,149 or 1·29 p.c.

As for the population of 10 years and over in the individual provinces, English was the mother tongue of 88·40 p.c. in Nova Scotia, of 87·16 p.c. in Prince Edward Island, of 84·87 p.c. in Ontario, of 80·02 p.c. in British Columbia, of 70·27 p.c. in New Brunswick, of 69·79 p.c. in Alberta, of 64·48 p.c. in Manitoba, of 61·08 p.c. in Saskatchewan and of 17·09 p.c. in Quebec. French was the mother tongue of 79·29 p.c. of the population 10 years old and over in Quebec, of 28·71 p.c. in New Brunswick, of 12·70 p.c. in Prince Edward Island, of 9·89 p.c. in Nova Scotia, of 7·38 p.c. in Ontario, of 6·52 p.c. in Manitoba, of 5·78 p.c. in Saskatchewan, of 5·73 p.c. in Alberta and of 1·94 p.c. in British Columbia.
