<sup>1</sup> Primary schools including Protestant high schools, 1923. The high school enrolment is not filled out because it would not be complete without including the high school pupils of the classical colleges and independent classical schools and of the normal schools.—The figures by sex represent high schools and collegiate institutes only; the totals include pupils in fifth classes.—The school figures for Charlottetown include Prince of Wales College, a provincial institution. However, the objection to including the H.S. pupils of this institution with the general enrolment of the city applies to other cities as well, since the H.S. of practically all cities enroll non-resident pupils from rural districts and other urban centres.

Secondary Education.—In the past quarter of a century the number of pupils of both sexes doing work of secondary grade has shown a very great absolute increase, as well as a large increase relatively to the number in elementary grades. The available statistics are given by years in Table 5, showing that in each of the provinces and in every year the number of girls in the secondary grades has exceeded the number of boys. The drop in the Ontario figures between 1915 and 1917 is due in part to the change in the statistical year from the calendar year to the natural school year from September to June.
