

the same. Sept. 20, Harold C. Schofield, Esq., Frank T. Lewis, Esq., and Thomas Nagle, Esq., of the city of Saint John, N.B.: to be Commissioners for the Harbour of Saint John; the first named to be chairman. Sept. 23, Col. Earle Caleb Phinney, barrister-at-law, Joseph Linton Hetherington, merchant, and Frank Merchant, manufacturers' agent: to be members of the Halifax Harbour Commission; the first named to be chairman. Sam McClay, Esq., James B. Thompson, Esq., and R. B. Williams, Esq., of the city of Vancouver, B.C.: to be members of the Vancouver Harbour Commission; the first named to be chairman. Peter White, Esq., K.C., of the city of Toronto, Ont.: to be a Commissioner under section 11 of the Combines Investigation Act, to investigate the business of certain Motion Picture Distributors and Exhibitors and Associations which are alleged to be a combine, and the business of any other person who has been or is believed to have been a member of the said alleged combine or a party or privy thereto. Oct. 22, V. Marley Wilson, K.C., of Napanee, Ont.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such political partizanship and other charges against employees of the Department of Pensions and National Health in the city of Kingston, Ont., as may be referred to him by the Minister of Pensions and National Health. Oct. 24, The Hon. John Fosbery Orde, a Justice of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Ontario: to conduct an inquiry under Part I of the Inquiries Act, c. 99, R.S.C. 1927, into and concerning the administration of Halifax Harbour, province of Nova Scotia, by the former Harbour Commissioners, Messrs. Peter Jack, John Murphy and Charles W. Ackhurst, all of the city of Halifax, and into all matters pertaining to such administration. George Wilson, Esq., of Saskatoon, Sask.: to be a Commissioner, under Part I of the Inquiries Act, c. 99, R.S.C. 1927, to investigate charges of political partizanship against government employees in the province of Saskatchewan. Oct. 28, Lieut.-Col. Henry Judson Coghill, Sergeant-in-Arms of the House of Commons: to be a Commissioner to administer the Oath of Allegiance to members elected to the House of Commons. Nov. 1, R. S. McLellan, Esq., K.C., Sydney, N.S.: to be a Commissioner, under the provisions of Part I of the Inquiries Act, c. 99, R.S.C. 1927, to investigate charges of political partizanship against employees of the Government of Canada residing on the island of Cape Breton. Frederick W. Bissett, Esq., Junior, Halifax, N.S., barrister-at-law: to be a Commissioner under the provisions of Part I of the Inquiries Act, c. 99, R.S.C. 1927, to investigate charges of political partizanship against employees of the Government of Canada residing in the mainland of the province of Nova Scotia. H. Fanning Gosselin, Esq., K.C., of the city of Quebec, Que.: to be a Commissioner, under the provisions of Part I of the Inquiries Act, c. 99, R.S.C. 1927, to investigate such charges of political partizanship against employees of the Post Office Department in the District of Quebec as may be referred to him by the Postmaster General. Nov. 6, H. W. Sangster, Esq., K.C., of Windsor, N.S.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, c. 99, R.S.C. 1927, to investigate the administration of Camp Hill Hospital, Halifax; the conduct therein of employees of the Department of Pensions and National Health, and any charges of political partizanship that may be referred to him by the Minister of Pensions and National Health. Nov. 8, H. Lester Smith, Esq., barrister, of Riverside, Albert County, N.B.: to be a Commissioner pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act to investigate such charges of political partizanship against employees of the Dominion Government as may be referred to him. Antoine Patrice Noel McLaughlin, barrister,