

of Campbellton, N.B.: to be a Commissioner pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act to investigate such charges of political partizanship against employees of the Dominion Government as may be referred to him. Dec. 2, Major Theodore Paquet, of the city of Quebec, Que.: to be a Commissioner to investigate charges of political partizanship against government employees in the province of Quebec. Bruno Nantel, Jr., barrister, of the city of Montreal, Que.: Commissioner, to investigate charges of political partizanship against government employees in the province of Quebec. Alphonse Garon, barrister, of the town of Rimouski, Que.: Commissioner, to investigate charges of political partizanship against government employees in the province of Quebec. Dec. 6, J. B. Bosquet, Esq., barrister, of St. Hyacinthe, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partizanship against employees of the Post Office Department in the District of St. Hyacinthe, province of Quebec, as may be referred to him by the Postmaster General. Henri Robert Côté, Esq., barrister, of the city of Quebec: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partizanship against employees of the Post Office Department in the Quebec District, province of Quebec, as may be referred to him by the Postmaster General. Joseph Alphonse Beaulieu, Esq., K.C., barrister, 159 Craig Street West, Montreal: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partizanship against Government employees in the province of Quebec as may be referred to him. Leopold Nantel, K.C., barrister, of St. Jerome, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partizanship against Government employees in the province of Quebec as may be referred to him. Joseph Ovide Courchesne, Notary Public, city of Nicolet: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partizanship against Government employees as may be referred to him by the Postmaster General. Joseph Antonio Drolet, barrister, Lac Megantic, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partizanship against employees of the Government in the province of Quebec as may be referred to him. Dec. 12, Leon Methot, Esq., barrister, of Three Rivers: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partizanship against employees of the Dominion Government as may be referred to him. Dec. 13, Alfred Powell, Esq., notary, of St. Ferdinand, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partizanship against Dominion Government employees in the province of Quebec as may be referred to him. Fred Babe, K.C., of the city of Fort William, Ont.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partizanship against Government employees in the province of Ontario as may be referred to him. Louis Côté, Esq., Chief Engineer of the Department of Marine; C. E. Brydone-Jack, Esq., of the Department of Public Works and C. E. Cartwright, Esq.: to be a Commission, under and pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to inquire into and report on all matters relative to means of communication for the transportation of persons, vehicles, goods and merchandise between Vancouver and North Vancouver at the Second Narrows, Burrard Inlet, B.C., and to report as to requirements to provide for the protection of navigation and meet the general public interests: Louis E. Côté, to be Chairman of the Commission. Dec. 20, Percy W. Abbott, K.C., of Edmon-