

ton, Alta.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate as to the correctness or otherwise of certain charges made against Mr. N. Curtis, employed as stock yard agent in the Dominion Department of Agriculture at Edmonton. Ernest H. Strong, Esq., of Summerside, P.E.I.: to be a Commissioner pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partizanship against employees of the Dominion Government as may be referred to him. William Noblett, Esq., of Sydney, N.S., barrister-at-law: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate charges of political partizanship against employees of the Dominion Government residing on the island of Cape Breton. Dec. 23, Cyril Richard Coughlan, of Bridgewater, N.S., barrister-at-law: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate charges of political partizanship against Dominion Government employees residing in the mainland portion of Nova Scotia. Dec. 24, Edgar Garfield Trick, of Winnipeg, Man., barrister-at-law: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate charges of political partizanship against Government employees in the province of Manitoba. Dec. 31, John Thomas McCourt, of the city of Toronto, Ont., Principal Postal Clerk of the Secretarial Branch of the Toronto Post Office: to be a Commissioner to administer the oath of allegiance and the oath of office prescribed by the Civil Service Act. 1931.—Jan. 7, Sherwood Herchmer, of Fernie, B.C., barrister-at-law: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate charges of political partizanship against Government employees in the province of British Columbia. Jan. 14, Alexander Taché, Esq., of Hull, Que., barrister-at-law: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate charges of political partizanship against Government employees in the province of Quebec. Leo Bérubé, Esq., K.C., of Rivière du Loup en bas, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate charges of political partizanship against Government employees in the province of Quebec. Gaston Allard, Esq., of Berthierville, Que., barrister-at-law: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate charges of political partizanship against Government employees in the province of Quebec. Jan. 15, Harold Richmond Hooper, Esq., B.A., of Carberry, Man., barrister-at-law: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate charges of political partizanship against Government employees in the province of Manitoba. Jan. 16, L. A. Ladouceur, Esq., of Amos, Que., barrister-at-law: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate charges of political partizanship against Government employees in the province of Quebec. Jan. 19, Gerard Simard, Esq., K.C., barrister-at-law, of Rimouski, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate charges of political partizanship against Government employees in the province of Quebec. Jan. 21, E. H. Lancaster, Esq., barrister-at-law, of St. Catharines, Ont.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate charges of political partizanship against Government employees in the province of Ontario. Jan. 28, B. B. Dubiński, barrister-at-law, Winnipeg, Man.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate charges of political partizanship against the Government employees in the province of Manitoba. Jan. 29, Herbert Whitehead, Postmaster of Sudbury, Ont.: to be a Commissioner to take and administer the Oath of Allegiance and of office as prescribed by the Civil Service Act of Canada. Feb. 7, His Honour James Gamble Wallace, Judge