

to authorize the issue of a Writ of Supersedeas cancelling the Commission appointing the Hon. Mr. Justice Frank Ford, a Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court of Alberta, dated Sept. 27, 1932, to make inquiries and report respecting certain complaints against the conduct of His Honour Lewis St. George Stubbs, a Judge of the County Court in Manitoba: and has been pleased to authorize the issuance of a new Commission to the Honourable Mr. Justice Ford to investigate any and all complaints against His Honour Judge Lewis St. George Stubbs, by Judges of the Supreme Court of Manitoba or the Attorney-General of the said Province from the date of his appointment as a County Judge up to and including Nov. 29, 1932. Dec. 7, Charles Prescott Dunn, Esq., Postmaster at Yarmouth, N.S.; to administer the Oath of Allegiance and of Office to employees of the Post Office Department at Yarmouth. Dec. 17, John Cormack, Esq., Canadian Trade Commissioner at Dublin, Irish Free State; to be a Commissioner to take and receive affidavits, declarations and affirmations in the Irish Free State concerning proceedings in the Supreme and Exchequer Courts of Canada and any other such oaths, etc. as may be competent for His Excellency in Council to authorize within the Irish Free State. Dec. 24, J. C. Martineau, Esq., Lévis, P.Q.; to administer the Oath of Allegiance and of Office to new employees entering the Lévis Post Office. 1933.—Jan. 5, Robert Wakefield Ward, Esq., Postmaster, Lethbridge, Alberta; to administer the Oath of Allegiance and of Office to new employees entering the Lethbridge Post Office. Jan. 24, His Excellency the Governor General in Council has been pleased to cancel the Commission dated Dec. 17, 1932, issued by error in the name of John Cormack, Esq., described as Dominion Trade Commissioner at Dublin, I.F.S., and authorizing him to administer oaths concerning actions in the Supreme and Exchequer Courts of Canada and to direct the issue of a new Commission appointing James Cormack, Esq., Dominion Trade Commissioner at Dublin, I.F.S., to administer the aforesaid oaths. April 8, Ralph McDonald Spankie, Esq., K.C., Deputy Registrar of the Exchequer Court of Canada; to be a Commissioner to administer oaths and to take and receive affidavits, declarations and affirmations in any proceedings in the Supreme and Exchequer Courts of Canada. April 8, Paul C. Quinn, Esq., Saint John, N.B.; to be a Commissioner to investigate such charges of political partizanship against Government employees as may be referred to him.

Day of General Thanksgiving.—Monday, Oct. 10, 1932, was appointed by proclamation as a "day of general thanksgiving to Almighty God for the bountiful harvest and other blessings with which Canada has been favoured this year"