

ELECTRIC STATIONS

4-1935

at maintained by Central Electric Stations during the years of depression. The splendid k or surplus power for which there was no other market at the time), but to expansion in firm power generated and of the total output about half is consumed by the following six alkalis and salts; abrasive products; and flour and feed mills. New high records were cord of 23,404,412,000 kilowatt hours which was 6 p.c. above the 1934 output.