

Manitoba.—Administration.—Municipal Commissioner, Tax Commission Office, Winnipeg. Legislation.—The Highway Traffic Act (c. 19, 1930) and amendments.

Motor Vehicle Regulations.—Registration is renewable annually on Jan. 1, but for registration on April 1, five-sixths of the annual fee and on Aug. 1, one-half of the annual fee is payable.

Traffic Regulations.—No person may operate a motor vehicle upon any highway or street at a greater speed than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the condition of the highway and the traffic. The onus of proof is on the motorist.

Saskatchewan.—Administration.—Motor Licence Office, Department of Highways, Regina. Legislation.—The Vehicles Act (c. 68, 1935).

Motor Vehicle Regulations.—Registration fee is $6 for a motor cycle; for private vehicles it is computed on the wheel base and is from $10 to $30; for livery privileges, the fee is $15 more than for a similar private vehicle; for motor trucks it is computed on the gross weight. To operate a truck or passenger car for gain, the owner must first secure a permit from the Highway Traffic Board. Dimension limits for a vehicle and its load are: width 96 inches, height 14 feet, length for one vehicle 33 feet and for vehicles coupled together 85 feet and maximum loaded weight per vehicle 10 tons.

Traffic Regulations.—Cities, towns and villages have authority to regulate speed limits within their boundaries. Other speed limits are: for any vehicle when meeting another vehicle 35 miles; for a loaded truck, 25 miles; and for an unloaded truck, 35 miles per hour. Otherwise speed is governed by the amount of traffic, the nature, condition and use of the highway.

Alberta.—Administration.—Motor Vehicle Branch, Department of the Provincial Secretary, Edmonton. Legislation.—The Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act (c. 31, 1924) and amendments.

Motor Vehicle Regulations.—Visiting motorists from other provinces are required to register with the Provincial Police but are exempt from other registration for six months, while motorists from the United States may carry their customs certificates in lieu of registration. The carrying of loaded weapons in an automobile is prohibited as a preventive measure against accidents during hunting trips.

Traffic Regulations.—The speed limits are: 10 miles per hour at street crossings and bridges; 20 miles per hour in cities, towns and villages; and 30 miles per hour in open country.

British Columbia.—Administration.—Motor Vehicle Branch, Commissioner of Provincial Police, Victoria. Legislation.—The Motor Vehicle Act (c. 50, 1935) and the Highway Act (c. 24, 1930) and amendments.

Motor Vehicle Regulations.—Visiting motorists are granted reciprocal exemption from registration up to six months provided they obtain non-resident touring permits or carry the customs permits in the case of residents of the United States. Special permits at one-twelfth the annual fee are issued to non-resident vehicles bringing loads into the province. No person may ride as a passenger on a motor cycle in front of the operator. Drivers' and owners' licences of all persons convicted for certain serious offences, as well as all persons against whom an unsatisfied judgment in excess of $100 is outstanding, are suspended until such time as proof of financial responsibility is furnished and adjudication therein complied with.

Traffic Regulations.—The onus is on the driver for driving to the common danger if exceeding the speed of 20 miles per hour in any city, town or village, or 30 miles per hour outside cities, towns or villages, or the maximum speed stated on
