

him. Mar. 31, Dominique Lévesque, Esq., K.C., New Carlisle, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partisanship against Government employees in the Province of Quebec as may be referred to him; Charles-Alphonse Beaulieu, Esq., Barrister, Matane, Que., to be a Commissioner, pursuant to the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partisanship against Government employees in the Province of Quebec as may be referred to him; Paul Roy, Esq., Barrister, Quebec, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partisanship against Government employees in the Province of Quebec as may be referred to him. April 3, Hon. Thibaudeau Rinfret, Hon. Lawrence Arthur D. Cannon, Hon. Henry Hague Davis, Hon. Patrick Kerwin and Hon. Albert Bluelock Hudson, Puisné Judges of the Supreme Court of Canada; and Hon. Alexander K. MacLean, President of the Exchequer Court of Canada, and Hon. Eugene Real Angers, Puisné Judge of the Exchequer Court of Canada: to be Commissioners per dedimus potestatem, to administer oaths within the Dominion of Canada; Lucien Beliveau, Esq., Barrister, Montreal, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partisanship against Government employees in the Province of Quebec as may be referred to him. François Caron, Esq., Barrister, Hull, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partisanship against Government employees in the Province of Quebec as may be referred to him; P. N. Pontbriand, Esq., Barrister, Sorel, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partisanship against Government employees in the Province of Quebec as may be referred to him; Robert Poisson, Esq., K.C., Ste. Rose, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partisanship against Government employees in the Province of Quebec as may be referred to him. April 6, Leonidas Cloutier, Esq., Barrister, of Percé, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partisanship against Government employees in the Province of Quebec as may be referred to him; J. Edmond Gagnon, Esq., Barrister, of Gaspé, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partisanship against Government employees in the Province of Quebec as may be referred to him. April 8, George J. Tweedy, Esq., K.C., of Charlottetown, P.E.I.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partisanship against Government employees in the Province of Prince Edward Island as may be referred to him. April 9, Gerard Denis, Esq., Barrister, of Joliette, Que.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partisanship against Government employees in the Province of Quebec as may be referred to him; J. Frank Outhit, Esq., K.C., of Kentville, N.S.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partisanship against Government employees in the Province of Nova Scotia as may be referred to him. April 20, J. J. Bench, Esq., Barrister, St. Catharines, Ont.: to be a Commissioner, pursuant to Part I of the Inquiries Act, to investigate such charges of political partisanship against Government employees in the Province of Ontario as may be referred to him.

Day of General Thanksgiving.—Thursday, Oct. 24, 1935, was appointed by proclamation as a “day of general thanksgiving to Almighty God for the bountiful harvests and other blessings with which Canada has been favoured”.