¹ Rates apply to cities and incorporated towns.² Rates vary according to population and industry, the higher rates for Montreal and district.³ Rates vary according to locality and population.⁴ Rates apply generally throughout province, also to male workers in many cases and to boys under 18 in cities.⁵ Only in cities and within a radius of 5 miles; applies to males as well as females.⁶ Apply to centres with more than 600 population, and to Banff, Lake Louise, Waterton Lake Park and Jasper, except in case of "Fruit and vegetable canning, etc." (where rates given apply throughout the province), and except in case of telephone operators.⁷ Rates apply throughout the province. Provision made for washing, curing, packing, etc., (except canning) of fish as follows: experienced—$15.50 per week (48 hours) or 32 7/24 cents per hour; minors, learners, etc.—$12.75 to $14.75 per week.⁸ In some industries, instead of a graduated scale according to experience, stipulated percentages of female workers in each establishment must receive the full minimum wage, while the remainder may work at lower minimum rates.⁹ Hourly rates are fixed for certain industries: adults, experienced—19 to 25 cents per hour, minors, learners, etc.—12½ to 19 cents.¹⁰ Includes departmental and chain stores, also wholesale establishments.¹¹ Hotels, per month with room and board. Restaurants: 17 and 15 cents per hour.¹² Custom millinery trades not in factories: minors, learners, etc.—$5.00 to $10.00.¹³ Shoe shine parlours in Toronto only, all including learners $12.50 (under separate order).¹⁴ Or 25 to 30 cents per hour.¹⁵ Apply also to elevator operators including learners (under separate order).¹⁶ Apply also to departmental stores and mail-order houses (under separate order).¹⁷ Higher rate applies to Winnipeg and district, and Brandon at any time; to Portage la Prairie, May to October; and to any summer resort, June to September.
