

acquired stores. The Minister of Finance is authorized to make such advances from the Consolidated Revenue Fund as may be necessary to enable the Minister of Transport to acquire or replenish such materials and equipment as is authorized by statute, but the outstanding balance of such advances shall at no time exceed one million dollars, and the appropriations of the Department for the particular items covered are to be applied against such advances.

The Trans-Canada Air Lines are incorporated under c. 43. The Corporation, under the management of a Board of Directors composed of seven persons, to be elected and appointed as provided, is authorized to establish, operate, and maintain air lines for the purpose of transporting mails, passengers, and goods by air and to enter into contracts for such transportation across Canada and between and within the several provinces. The authorized capital of the Corporation is $5,000,000 (50,000 shares of $100 par value). Shares were offered to the Canadian National Railway Company at par and the Company was permitted to sell or dispose of not more than 24,900 shares (except by the approval of Parliament) to persons engaged or interested in aviation and approved by the Minister of Transport. The Minister is empowered to contract with the Corporation for the operation and maintenance of the Trans-Canada Lines and the Postmaster General may enter into a contract with the Corporation for the transport of mails by the Trans-Canada Lines.

Miscellaneous.—Amendments are made regarding the organization of the Central Council and the Executive Committee of the Red Cross Society by c. 7.

C. 32 is the Foreign Enlistment Act, 1937. It is an offence against this Act to enlist, or induce another to enlist, in the armed forces of a foreign State at war with a friendly foreign State (except that nationals of countries which are represented in Canada by foreign consular or diplomatic officers may be recruited by the latter under regulations made by the Governor in Council), to take on board a conveyance any person so enlisted, to build, commission, equip, or dispatch ships to be employed by armed forces of any foreign State against a friendly State, to prepare any military, naval, or air expedition to proceed against dominions of any friendly State, or to bring within Canada, in violation of Canadian neutrality, any prize of war. Offences against this Act may be prosecuted as indictable offences in which case fines up to $2,000 or two years imprisonment or both fine and imprisonment may be imposed. Regulations that the Governor in Council may make under this Act are to be published in the Canada Gazette. The Foreign Enlistment Act, 1870, passed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom (c. 90, 33-34 Victoria) is repealed in so far as it is part of the law of Canada.

C. 35, the National Parks Act, 1937, provides for the setting aside, as a National Park, of such lands in New Brunswick as the province and Canada agree upon, subject to the National Parks Act (c. 33, 1930). The Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island National Parks Act (c. 43, 1936) is amended by s. 3 of this legislation to provide for the withdrawal from the park in Nova Scotia of certain lands in Cape Breton island.

By c. 37, the Agreement of Mar. 30, 1920, with the city of Ottawa is extended for another year as from July 1, 1936.

C. 38 amends the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Act (c. 160, R.S.C. 1927) with respect to the appointment of the R.C.M.P. Reserve, which formerly contained only officers and men who had served in the Force and who were appointed to the Reserve for a term not exceeding one year. The Commissioner may now appoint, for a period of three years, such number of men, as reserve constables, as the Gover-
