

The Archives places all its material at the service of the public. Anyone may present himself, and be admitted to consult the documents in the Students' Room specially appointed for this purpose. The help and experience of the staff may also be obtained by inquirers in their research work. For those who cannot make the journey to Ottawa, there remains the easy method of correspondence, as the Department will provide, when practicable, the desired information.

Section 2.—Outlines of Canadian History.

The late Sir Arthur Doughty prepared an outline of the history of Canada which appeared in the 1913 Year Book, pp. 1-29, and in somewhat abridged form in the 1922-23 Year Book, pp. 60-80.

A special article "Canada on Vimy Ridge", prepared by Colonel A. Fortescue Duguid, D.S.O., B.Sc., R.C.A., Director of the Historical Section, Department of National Defence, was published at pp. 50-60 of the Canada Year Book, 1936.

A special article "Historic Sites and Monuments in Canada" was published at pp. 78-90 of the 1938 edition of the Year Book.

Section 3.—A Bibliography of Canadian History.*

A select bibliography of historical works relating to Canada was contributed to the 1925 edition of the Year Book by the late Adam Shortt. The following, although still purposely short, is a more extended and eclectic bibliography compiled for the benefit of the general reader and restricted to authoritative books on general topics.
