Rural and Urban Farm Populations.—At p. 126 of the 1937 Year Book statistics of rural and urban farm population, by provinces, as compiled from the Census of 1931, are given, and at p. 299 of the 1934-35 Year Book details regarding farm workers, those farms employing hired labour, the period of employment, and the cost of labour are shown. The reader is also referred to the item "Wage-earners" (in agriculture) in the Index of the present volume for further information on these topics.

Section 11.—Literacy.

The subject of literacy is discussed at pp. 131-132 of the 1936 Year Book. At p. 157 of the 1934-35 Year Book will be found a table showing the literacy of the population of 5 years or over from 1901 to 1931, at pp. 158-159 of the same edition the same information as is now summarized in Table 23 is given by sex, while on p. 160 is shown the literacy of the population of cities and towns of 30,000 population or over, as in 1931.
