Table 13 shows the numbers of branches and the reported total membership of Canadian central labour bodies operating in Canada at the close of 1938. At the foot of the table are shown the statistics of the National Catholic and independent unions, thus giving a grand total of all Canadian unions that have no affiliation with the international movement. When these figures are added to the totals of internationally affiliated unions shown in Table 12, the result corresponds to the total labour union membership in Canada as shown at p. 770.
