of officers and men on active service. Conditions are prescribed governing the organization of the corporation, property vested in the corporation, investments, and audit.

C. 10 is an Act relating to war charities. All funds having for their objects, or among their objects, the supplying of needs or comforts, or the relief of suffering and distress, for the personnel of the armed forces of Canada, their families or dependants, or for any other sufferers from the present war, or any other charitable purpose connected with the war, must be registered. The Secretary of State for Canada (or other Minister charged with the administration of the Act) is authorized to grant such registration upon certain conditions being fulfilled to his satisfaction. No such charity is permitted to solicit or make appeal to the public for donations, or to raise funds by means of bazaars, sales, entertainments, etc., unless registra-When registration has been effected, it is still an offence tion has been effected. to make any collection unless authorization in writing, as stipulated in Sect. 4 of the Act, has been obtained. Certain conditions must be complied with, such as the maintenance of proper records and accounts, and the Secretary of State may make regulations prescribing the forms of registers, lists, and returns to be kept or made. A penalty of $500 may be imposed upon summary conviction for an offence against the Act.

Section 2.—Principal Events of the Year.

Note.—The review of economic and financial conditions, formerly treated in this chapter, will now be found in the Introduction to this volume.

The Outbreak of War.—A record of the principal events of the War, to Dec. 31, 1939, will be found at pp. 36-40 of this volume. Happenings from Jan. 1, 1940, to the date of going to press will be found in Appendix I, at pp. 1143-1148.
