

British 'Guest' Children.—An account of British guest children coming to Canada for the duration of the War is given at pp. 164-165 of the 1942 Year Book.

Subsection 8.—Refugee Immigration

An account of this movement, in so far as it can be distinguished from normal immigration, is given at pp. 165-166 of the 1942 Year Book.

Subsection 9.—Oriental Immigration

Under present conditions, Oriental immigration has ceased to be a problem and the economic effect of the presence of persons of Oriental origin can best be studied from census figures. An outline of the background and legislation connected with the immigration of Orientals into Canada is given at pp. 122-124 of the 1941 edition of the Year Book, and the table below presents statistics of Oriental immigration by sex since 1906, the earliest year for which these figures are available.
