Section 1.—The Government in Relation to Labour

Subsection 1.—The Dominion Department of Labour

The Department of Labour of the Dominion Government was established in 1900 to administer the Conciliation Act which was designed to aid in preventing or settling disputes, to enforce the Government's fair-wages policy for the protection of workmen employed on Dominion Government contracts and on works aided by grants of public funds, and to collect, compile and publish statistical and other labour information.

At the present time, the Minister is responsible for the administration of the following: Conciliation and Labour Act; the Fair-Wages Policy; Fair Wages and Hours of Labour Act; Government Annuities Act; Combines Investigation Act; Youth Training Act, 1939, and the War Emergency Training Scheme; Vocational Training Co-ordination Act, 1942; Unemployment Insurance Act, 1940; Reinstatement in Civil Employment Act, 1942; and certain wartime regulations (made under authority of the War Measures Act, 1917) including the Wartime Wages Control Order, the Wartime Labour Relations Regulations and the National Selective Service Regulations.

The Wages Order and the Labour Relations Order are administered by the War Labour Board and the Wartime Labour Relations Board, respectively. While the Labour Relations Regulations, 1944, remain in effect, the operation of the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act is suspended. Information concerning this Act, enacted first in 1907, and its extension to war industries may be found in earlier Year Books.
