

p.c., respectively. The output of Saskatchewan is subject to marked fluctuation due to the dominant position of agriculture as a source of income; amounting to nearly 84 p.c. of the provincial total in 1944. The output of agriculture in Alberta at 61 p.c. was considerably greater than the return from all other activities concerned with the production of commodities.

British Columbia.—The advance in manufacturing production in British Columbia overshadowed the wartime gains in other industrial groups. The proportion of the total in 1944, after the elimination of duplication, was nearly 46 p.c. compared with 20 p.c. for forestry and 10 p.c. for agriculture.
