Section 3.—The Easing of Controls on Enemy Trading Regulations*

Because of occupation by an enemy State, or by reason of real or apprehended hostilities, a number of countries, during the years 1939 to 1942, were brought within the scope of the provisions of the Enemy Trading Regulations (originally brought into force by Order in Council P.C. 2512 of Sept. 5, 1939, later provided for under "Revised Regulations Respecting Trading with the Enemy, 1943", Order in Council P.C. 8526 dated Nov. 13, 1942 and now included in "The Trading with the Enemy (Transitional Powers) Act"). A list of these countries or territories and the dates on which they were brought under the Regulations is given at p. 474 of the 1945 Year Book.

The Regulations prohibited trading or attempting to trade with "enemy territories"; dealing in the property of enemies for the purpose of enabling them to obtain money or credit thereon; aiding or abetting any person, whether resident in Canada or not, to so deal in enemy property; knowingly discharging any enemy debt, promissory note or bill of exchange, or purchasing enemy currency.

Beginning late in 1943, it became possible to grant permission for the resumption of trade with certain liberated and "enemy" areas. The areas to which such permission has been granted and the dates are listed in the following statement:—
