

The Canadian Government also contributed international relief. From a $20,000,000 fund set aside for international relief on the termination of UNRRA, Canada gave $5,000,000 to the International Children's Emergency Fund and $11,000,000 for work in Austria, Greece and Italy. Another outstanding contribution was made by Canadian participation in the Preparatory Commission of the International Refugee Organization, which has taken responsibility for the maintenance and repatriation or resettlement of refugees and displaced persons.
