Subsection 3.—Juvenile Immigration

Juvenile immigration, apart from children accompanying their parents, has not been a large factor since 1931, when the Federal Government ceased to grant financial assistance for this particular form of immigration. There were 33 juvenile immigrants in 1941, 23 in 1942, 28 in 1946, 6 in 1947 and 28 in 1948.* An outline of juvenile immigration, including those children brought to Canada under the British Empire Settlement Agreement, is given at p. 121 of the 1941 Year Book.

Subsection 4.—Oriental Immigration

Under wartime conditions, Oriental immigration ceased to be a problem and the economic effect of the presence of persons of Oriental origin can best be studied from census figures. The Chinese Immigration Act was repealed on May 14, 1947. Chinese immigration has been controlled under the Immigration Act subsequent to that date. An outline of the background and legislation connected with the immigration of Orientals into Canada is given at pp. 122-124 of the 1941 edition of the Year Book, and Table 14, below, presents statistics of Oriental immigration since 1906, the earliest year for which figures are available. These figures are given by sex at pp. 175-176 of the 1945 Year Book.

*See p. 174 for orphans arriving by special permission during 1948.
