

The Statistical Summary of the Progress of Canada from 1871 to the latest year, given at pp. xv to xxvii, brings to a focus the advances made in all important branches of economic and social activity over a period of almost 80 years. At the time of going to press changes in the Federal Cabinet were announced and certain new Departments were set up. These matters are, therefore, dealt with in the final Chapters and in Appendix II.

All sections of this edition have been carefully revised by the most competent authorities and include the latest information at the time of going to press.

The present volume has been edited by A. E. Millward, Director, Canada Year Book Division, assisted by Herbert H. Coulson and the Year Book Staff. Charts, graphs and layouts have been made by or under the direction of J. W. Delisle, Senior Draughtsman of the Bureau.

Acknowledgments are hereby tendered to the numerous officials of the Federal and Provincial Governments, and to others who have contributed material. Whenever possible, credit is given to the persons and various services concerned by means of footnotes to the respective sections.

With a view to the improvement of future editions, the Bureau will be glad to hear of any errors that may have escaped notice and to receive suggestions with regard to omissions or to methods of treatment.
