Subsection 3.—Nova Scotia

The Province of Nova Scotia has a Lieutenant-Governor, Executive Council and a House of Assembly. The Ministry or Cabinet, styled the Executive Council, consists of the Premier and Provincial Treasurer; the Attorney General who is also Minister of Labour, Acting Minister of Public Health, Acting Minister of Public Welfare, and Acting Registrar General; the Minister of Mines who is also Provincial Secretary and Minister of Municipal Affairs; the Minister of Highways and Public Works; the Minister of Agriculture and Marketing who is also Minister of Lands and Forests; the Minister of Trade and Industry, and two Ministers without portfolio one of whom is in charge of the administration of the Nova Scotia Liquor Control Act. The House of Assembly formerly had 30 members but this number was increased by legislation in 1948 to 37 effective at the next General Election. The members of the Assembly are elected for five years, the maximum duration of its existence.

The Premier of the Province receives a salary of $9,000 per annum and Cabinet Ministers a salary of $8,000 per annum. Each member of the House of Assembly receives a sessional indemnity of $1,600 and an allowance of $800 for expenses incidental to the discharge of his duties. The Leader of the Opposition receives an allowance of $1,000 in addition to his sessional indemnity.

14.—Lieutenant-Governors of Nova Scotia, 1867-1949, Legislatures and Premiers, 1934-49, and Present Ministry as at Aug. 1, 1949
