Juvenile Immigration.—Juvenile immigration, apart from children accompanying their parents, has not been a large factor since 1931, when the Federal Government ceased to grant financial assistance for this particular form of immigration. There were 33 juvenile immigrants in 1941, 23 in 1942, 28 in 1946, 6 in 1947, 28 in 1948 and 6 in 1949. An outline of juvenile immigration, including those children brought to Canada under the British Empire Settlement Agreement, is given at p. 121 of the 1941 Year Book.

Oriental Immigration.—The economic effect of the presence of persons of Oriental origin can best be studied from census figures. The Chinese Immigration Act was repealed on May 14, 1947. Chinese immigration has been controlled under the Immigration Act subsequent to that date. Under the present regulations, the only persons of Asiatic racial origin who are admissible to Canada are the wives and minor children of Canadian citizens.
