Subsection 2.—Private Elementary and Secondary Schools

Private schools include all those not operated by publicly elected or appointed boards. Except in Quebec, they receive no support from public funds. Instruction is similar to that given in public schools except that more tuition may be given in music, dramatics, art, etc., and in schools under religious control there is greater emphasis on religious instruction. In most provinces there is some form of inspection or regulation by the provincial Department of Education.

Of the 865 private schools reporting in 1953-54, 550 were in Quebec, 110 in Ontario, 130 in the Prairie Provinces, 41 in British Columbia and 34 in the Maritimes. There were 6,057 full-time teachers of whom 1,593 were men. Outside of Quebec the salaries for lay teachers in these schools ranged from $1,000 to $8,000 with a median of $2,432.
