The sources of coal consumed in Canada in the years 1947-56 are shown in Table 23 and detailed figures of coal made available for consumption in 1955 and 1956 are given in Table 24; the difference between the totals of the two tables in the same year is accounted for by the fact that coal received may be held in bond at Canadian ports and not cleared for consumption until required, and coal received in previous years may be taken out of bond (cleared for consumption) in a later year. Normally the coal made available for consumption is greater than the apparent domestic consumption as coal is landed at
