Subsection 6.—Ontario

The Government of Ontario consists of a Lieutenant-Governor, an Executive Council and a House of Assembly. The Honourable Justice John Keiller Mackay, Lieutenant-Governor of the province at Sept. 1, 1958, was commissioned to office Dec. 30, 1957. Lieutenant-Governors since Confederation are cited in the 1951 Year Book, p. 92, and in the 1957-58 edition, p. 66.

The House of Assembly, the single-chamber Legislature of the province, is composed of 98 members elected for a statutory term of five years.

Besides the regular Departments of Government, the Niagara Parks Commission, the Ontario Municipal Board, The Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario, the Ontario-St. Lawrence Development Commission, the Ontario Northland Transportation Commission, the Liquor Control Board, the Liquor Licence Board, the Hospital Services Commission and The Water Resources Commission have been created.

Under the provisions of the Legislative Assembly Act (R.S.O. 1950, c. 202, with amendments) each Member of the Assembly is paid an annual indemnity of $3,600 and an allowance for expenses of $1,800. In addition, the Speaker receives a special indemnity at the annual rate of $3,000 and an expense allowance of $2,000; the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole a special indemnity at the annual rate of $1,000; and the Leader of the Opposition a special indemnity of $3,000 and an annual allowance of $2,000 for expenses. Each Member of the Cabinet having charge of a Department receives the ordinary indemnity as a Member of the Legislature in addition to his salary as a Minister of the Crown. The salary provided in the Executive Council Act for the Premier is $14,000 and for a Cabinet Minister having charge of a Department $10,000. A Minister without Portfolio receives only the indemnity and expense allowance of a Member of the Legislature. By the 1956 amendment, every Minister of the Crown in charge of a Department, the Minister of the Crown who is a member of The Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario, and the Leader of the Opposition receives a representation allowance of $2,000 per annum.
