

11.—Maximum Monthly Rates under Provincial Mothers' Allowances Legislation, July 1958

—concluded

| Province | Mother and One Child | Each Additional Child | Disabled Father at Home | Family Maximum | Supplementary |
|-------------------------|--|--|---|---|---|
| Man..... | Food, clothing and utilities: $47-$59 depending on age of child. Shelter: rent to $55, or taxes, insurance and minor repairs up to $20 plus principal and interest on mortgage or agreement for sale and necessary major repairs. | $14 for child up to 3 years $16 for child 4-6 years $21 for child 7-11 years $26 for child 12-18 years (Subject to deductions for fourth and each additional child). | $25 | None set. | $10 monthly if family has no income. In case of extraordinary need up to $180 a year may be granted; if house-keeper service is required this amount may be exceeded. Fuel allowance granted for eight months. |
| Sask..... | $60 $35 for one child living with a guardian. | $10 $20 for each additional child living with guardian. | $20 Also if confined to a nursing home or sanatorium. | $150 $170 if disabled father at home, in nursing home or sanatorium. | The local municipality may grant supplementary aid under the Social Assistance program. Costs are shared between the province and municipality on a 75-25 basis; in unorganized territories the province assumes full cost. |
| Alta..... | $70 | $20 for 2nd and 3rd child $15 for 4th to 6th child $10 for 7th to 9th child. | Not applicable. | $185 | Municipalities of residence may grant additional aid, 80 p.c. of the cost of which is reimbursed by the province; in unorganized territories the province assumes full cost. |
| B.C. ¹ | $42.50 plus $34 from social allowance funds. | $7.50 plus $8.50 from social allowance funds. | $7.50 plus $8.50 from social allowance funds. | A maximum is set but there is no limit to the number who may benefit. | Extra expenditures for additional needs such as repairs and emergencies; also for dietary extras, housekeeper service, prenatal allowances and certain assistance to TB patients and TB contacts are met through social allowance funds. Costs shared by province and municipalities on 80-20 basis but province meets total cost of provincial cases and of prenatal allowances. |

¹ From Sept. 1, 1958, all mothers' allowances cases were transferred to the Social Assistance caseload.