Net Income of Farm Operators from Farming Operations, 1957.—After moving slowly upward for two years, farm net income dropped back in 1957 to the 1954 level of slightly more than $1,000,000,000. This decline of 28 p.c. from the 1956 level was the result of lower net income to farmers in all provinces except British Columbia and Ontario where it increased by 4 p.c. Farm net income was about 25 p.c., 4 p.c. and 47 p.c. lower in 1957 than in 1956 for the Maritime Provinces, Quebec and the Prairie Provinces respectively. The increase in Ontario and British Columbia was almost sufficient to offset the
