

Summer brings an accent of colour and pageantry to Parliament Hill in the National Capital. The stirring spectacle of the Changing of the Guard, performed each morning from July to mid-September 1960 by No. 7 Company, 2nd Battalion of the Canadian Guards, was viewed by upwards of half a million persons.