PART IV.—FEDERAL LEGISLATION, 1961-62

The Acts passed at the Fourth Session of the Twenty-Fourth Parliament from its opening on Nov. 17, 1960 to July 13, 1961 when it recessed are listed in the 1961 Year Book at pp. 1237-1241. The legislation passed at the remainder of the Session which began on Sept. 7, 1961 and prorogued Sept. 28, 1961 is outlined below, followed by the legislation passed at the Fifth Session of the Twenty-Fourth Parliament which began Jan. 18, 1962 and ended Apr. 19, 1962.

These classified lists of federal legislation have been compiled from the Statutes. Naturally in summarizing material of this kind it is not always possible to convey the full implication of the legislation. The reader who is interested in any specific Act is therefore referred to the Statutes of Canada in the given volume and chapter.
