

The 922 incorporated urban centres in Canada having a population of 1,000 or more at the time of the 1961 Census are listed alphabetically by province in Table 9 and their populations given for the two census years 1956 and 1961. Each population figure is for the boundary in effect at the time of the respective census.

9.—Incorporated Cities, Towns and Villages having Populations of 1,000 or Over in 1961, by Province, Census Years 1956 and 1961

NOTE.—Population totals are based on areas as incorporated at each of these dates; a change in municipal boundary since the preceding census is indicated by an asterisk (*). Urban centres are designated in this table by the following abbreviations: c. = city, t. = town, and v. = village.
