Section 3.—Principal Factors in Manufacturing Production

In addition to the factors dealt with in the following Subsections 1 and 2, one of the principal indicators of growth in manufacturing production is the amount paid as salaries and wages to various groups of employees within those industries. The latest information available on employment, earnings and hours worked in manufacturing industries at the time of going to press was that for 1960, summarized in the 1962 Year Book at pp. 722-727.
