

TELECOMMUNICATIONS IN THE CANADIAN NORTHWEST

Massive antenna installations at the Hay River, N.W.T., terminal of the Tropospheric Scatterwave system; similar installations are being made at Snare Falls, Port Radium and Lady Franklin Point.

Pole-line construction in the isolated North is adapted to local conditions; where heavy rock or permafrost is encountered, tripod installations are used.

