

From Table 2, which classifies imports on a functional basis, it may be seen that the increases in 1962 were well spread over industrial materials, investment goods and consumer goods.

2.—Imports into Canada classified by End-Use, 1960-62
(Millions of dollars)

Item	1960	1961	1962
Fuels and lubricants.....	478	473	487
Industrial Materials—
Textile and fur materials.....	353	378	422
Metal materials.....	423	448	529
Chemical materials.....	291	318	346
Other.....	388	408	430
Totals, Industrial Materials.....	1,455	1,552	1,727
Investment Goods—
Machinery and parts.....	940	968	1,093
Electrical machinery.....	233	234	302
Aircraft, transport equipment and parts.....	270	406	365
Construction materials, structural steel and pipe.....	232	216	221
Totals, Investment Goods.....	1,675	1,824	1,981
Consumer Goods—
Foods, beverages and tobacco.....	572	618	650
Clothing, household textiles and leather goods.....	151	149	120
Passenger autos, engines and parts and finished vehicles.....	488	439	539
Household durables and semi-durables.....	223	227	203
Other manufactured goods.....	395	433	492
Totals, Consumer Goods.....	1,829	1,866	2,004
Special items.....	46	53	60
Totals, Imports.....	5,483	5,771	6,258