8.—Maximum Monthly Rates under Provincial Mothers' Allowances Programs, April 1964—concluded

Subsection 2.-General Assistance

All provinces make legislative provision for general assistance on a means or needs test basis to needy persons and their dependants who cannot qualify for other forms of aid, and some provinces include those whose benefits under other programs are not adequate. Where necessary, the aid may be for maintenance in homes for special care. Besides financial aid for the basic needs of food, clothing, shelter and utilities, a number of provinces also provide incapacitation or rehabilitation allowances, counselling and homemaking services, and post-sanatorium care. This assistance, with some exceptions, is administered by the
