Many types of highly specialized equipment, suited to particular conditions, are effecting economies in forest operations - in time, labour and utilization.

A sprawler heel boom wields logs brought in by a portable metal spor.

100000

dista ...

10.4

 $\label{eq:control} \bigtriangleup^{\mathsf{A}} \text{ double-cant gang saw in operation of an automoted,} \\ \mathsf{high-production sawmill.}$

Huge lathes, with razor-sharp blades, peel veneer as thin as paper from the log.

Mechanical loaders quickly and neatly fill the trucks with pulpwood.

level, trees up to 22" in diameter.

A full-tree horvester A shears off, at ground

Fine paper being pro-Cressed on a trailingblade coater.

A large integrated

plex on Canada's West Coost.

Clumber and plywood are basic to house-building in Canada.