

Federal assistance to mining companies for exploration and development work in the territories includes road construction. Where two or more companies are developing a mineralized region, a mine development road may be built and paid for by the Federal Government. Also, two thirds of the cost of a mine-access road may be paid by the Federal Government, and one half the cost of a basic tote-trail may be contributed by the Territorial Government concerned. Tote-trail assistance will be financed from a $50,000 fund provided to each Territorial Government by the Federal Government.

Urban Streets.—Information on urban streets is obtained from the local administrations of all areas with populations over 1,000, all areas located within census metropolitan areas, improvement districts over 1,000 population and rural municipalities over 15,000 population. Brief statistical data are given in Table 3; more detail may be obtained from DBS annual report Road and Street Mileage and Expenditure (Catalogue No. 53-201).
